The information on this Historical Returns page (defireturns.io) is provided by Pods Labs Ltd and its affiliates (Pods) solely for informational purposes and shall not constitute or be construed as an offer, recommendation, or advice with respect to any trading strategy or digital assets. This page and the information presented hereon has not been prepared based on consideration of any individual user circumstances and as such should not be considered to be a personal recommendation or trading advice. Pods expressly disclaims on behalf of itself, its affiliates, and its representatives any fiduciary or advisory relationship with users arising out of or relating to this page and the information presented hereon. Prior to pursuing any trading strategy or making any other financial decision, users should seek individualized advice from their own financial, legal, tax and other professional advisors taking into account all of the particular facts and circumstances of the user's own situation.

The information presented on this page is derived from data obtained from multiple sources. No representation or warranty is given with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any information on this page or the data from which it is derived, each of which are subject to change without notice. Pods disclaims any and all liability on behalf of itself, its affiliates, and its representatives relating to this page, including, without limitation, any express or implied representations or warranties for errors or inaccuracies in the information on this page and the data from which it is derived.

The performance data presented on this page represents past performance. Past performance is not indicative of future returns, and no representation or warranty is made that any returns indicated will be achieved. Certain assumptions may have been made in the preparation and presentation of the information on this page and the data from which is derived, and such assumptions may have resulted in or otherwise impacted any returns indicated. Changes in such assumptions could have a material impact on any returns detailed. Moreover, transaction costs (such as gas fees) are not included in the calculation of returns. In addition, users should consult their own financial, legal, tax, and other professional advisors as to other considerations that may impact or affect the returns and economic consequences of any trading strategy.

The information on this page is not, and is not intended to be, a complete presentation of all relevant, material information with respect to any strategy. Strategies of the type presented on this page may involve a high degree of risk and the value and returns of such trading strategies may be highly volatile. Risks of such trading strategies may include but are not limited to: adverse or unanticipated market movements and price fluctuations, liquidity risks, smart contract risk, and impermanent loss. This brief statement of risks is not comprehensive and users should ensure, in consultation with their own financial, legal, tax and other professional advisors, that they fully understand the risks of any trading strategy they may choose to pursue.
